

The notice of Mid-Autumn Festival and National Day Holiday

19th - September, 2020, Shenzhen (Ref. #: TN20091801)

To all employees:

The Mid-Autumn Festival and National Day holiday in 2020 is approaching. According to the national holiday regulations and the company's actual situation, the company will make the following arrangements for the Mid-Autumn Festival and National Day holiday in 2020:

1. The holiday period is from 1st to 8th October, a total of 8 days. 27th September (Sunday) and 10th October (Saturday) will be normal working holidays.
2. All employees of the company are requested to make their own pre-holiday work arrangements, and check related facilities and equipment, do a good job in fire prevention and theft, and ensure the safety and order of the office.
3. The employees of the company should maintain smooth communication during the holidays and must support the sales & support departments (especially overseas departments) in real time in case of customer needs.
4. The company hopes that all employees should pay attention to their personal and financial safety during the holidays and spend the holidays happily.

We wish all employees a happy work and a happy family!
